

USBE is planned as a permanent self-supporting agency, with support to come from participating libraries; 154 large American public and university libraries have already pledged their membership to the USBE. Benefits to foreign libraries during the first three years are being underwritten by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation.

The Executive Director of the organization is Alice Dulany Ball, former Acting Executive Director of the American Book Center for War-Devastated Libraries, Inc. Communications should be addressed to The United States Book Exchange, c/o Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C.
